S. 126

To unify the formulation and execution of United States diplomacy.

IN THE SENATE OF THE UNITED STATES

JANUARY 4, 1995

Mr. MOYNIHAN introduced the following bill; which was read twice and referred to the Select Committee on Intelligence

A BILL

To unify the formulation and execution of United States diplomacy.

1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2 tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

3 TITLE I—SHORT TITLE

4 SEC. 101. This Act may be cited as the “Abolition
5 of the Central Intelligence Agency Act of 1995”.

6 TITLE II—ABOLITION OF THE CENTRAL
7 INTELLIGENCE AGENCY

8 SEC. 201. PURPOSE.—It is the purpose of this title
9 to unify the formulation and execution of United States
10 foreign policy by providing overall authority over intel-
11 ligence activities to the Secretary of State.

1 SEC. 202. FINDINGS.—The Congress finds that—

2 (1) the creation of the Central Intelligence
3 Agency as a separate entity during the Cold War
4 undermined the role of the Department of State as 5 the primary agency of the United States Govern-
6 ment in formulating and conducting foreign policy
7 and providing information to the President concern-
8 ing the state of world affairs; and

9 (2) it is desirable for the Secretary of State to 10 serve as the official primarily responsible for coordi-
11 nating and managing the gathering of intelligence.

12 SEC. 203. TRANSFER OF INTELLIGENCE FUNC-
13 TIONS.—

14 (a) Not later than two years after the effective 15 date of this Act there shall be transferred to and 16 vested in the Secretary of State all of the functions,
17 powers and duties of the Director of Central Intel-
18 ligence, the Director of the Central Intelligence
19 Agency and any officer or component of the Central 20 Intelligence Agency.

21 (b) Not later than one year after the effective
22 date of this Act, the Secretary of State, after con-
23 sultation with the Director of the Central Intel-24 ligence Agency and other relevant officials, shall 25 transmit to the Congress a plan for (1) effecting the

1 transfer of functions under this section and (2) ad-
2 ministering those functions. In designing the plan
3 the Secretary shall also consult with the Congress,
4 other relevant federal agencies and the President's 5 Foreign Intelligence Advisory Board.

6 (c) The Secretary of State is authorized to con-
7 duct the functions transferred by subsection (a).

8 (d) The transfer of a function or office from an 9 officer or agency to the Secretary of State includes 10 any aspects of such function or office vested in a 11 subordinate of such officer or in a component of 12 such agency.
